

PTO Meeting Minutes

May 5, 2020

In Attendance: President - Kim Lock, Vice President - Joanna Christoff, Treasurer- Samantha Hendershot, Secretary - Megan Osborne, Principal--Mark Heiden, Assistant Principal- Chloe Limbach, Superintendent- Dr. David Clendening

Old Business:

- We received a full refund from The Wizards after having to cancel the game for this year. They will be back in town next year Around April 9-10
- The DJ for the carnival is applying the $100 deposit to next year's fee
- Children's Museum Night was successful

New Business:

- Tamara Schneider, Summer School Principal, reached out asking for donations for prizes to encourage students to participate in the district's summer reading program. Dr. C stated that Central Office would be willing to help out as well. Dr. Heiden will reach out to Tamara Schneider to see what we can do to help if needed.
- PTO purchased e-gift cards for teachers from Main & Madison that will go out tomorrow
- Thank you to CO for the Teacher Appreciation signs that are going up for teacher appreciation week.

Budget Discussions:

- Due to cancelling the carnival as well as the Wizards game, we're out about $10,000. At the summer budget meeting, the officers will have to see what if anything needs to be cut for next year until the money can be recouped. Possibly hold the Papa John's fundraiser ASAP if school is able to open on time next year.
- PTO will look at applications and sponsor 1 Creekside scholarship for this year.
- A mural to honor retired teachers will replace the outdoor plaques as soon as we are able to make that transition. We will pay to update plaques for scholarship winners as well.
- Mystery Science is still a discussion for next year
- For the Kids Fund--new speaker system for the gym/cafe--to be continued...
